

Business Partnerships

The Marion Civic Theatre works to enhance the quality of life in Grant County by through the presentation of live theater productions. You have the opportunity to partner with us in supporting this important service to the community. In return, you will receive valuable promotion for your business or organization.

How can you get involved? Here is an overview of the various options for sponsorships and advertising.

Show Sponsorships

Tax-deductible sponsorship dollars go directly to covering the cost of the show(s) being sponsored. In return for that support, each sponsor will receive the following:

- Inside-front cover advertising in that show's program.
- Mention in all newspaper advertising for the show.
- Placement on all show posters and/or placemats distributed throughout the community.
- Appearance on the Civic Theatre marquee during rehearsals and throughout the run of the show.
- Name displayed prominently in the theater lobby during shows.
- Recognition during verbal announcements which precede each show.
- 6 complimentary tickets to any one performance of the show being sponsored.
